

B.E. Publishing

Correlations to QuickBooks Online for Certification to Certiport's Intuit QuickBooks Online Certified User Standards

Standard	Correlating Pages
1. Intuit QuickBooks Online Administration
1.1 Set up Intuit QuickBooks Online
1.1.1 Recognize features and benefits of Intuit QuickBooks Online Plus	Chapter 1, pg. 11-14
1.1.2 Describe licensing requirements for setting up an entity in Intuit QuickBooks Online	Chapter 1, pg. 11-14
1.1.3 Describe the process of migrating company to Intuit QuickBooks Online	Chapter 2, pg. 26-27
1.1.4 Describe the access of each default user role	Chapter 3, pg. 39-47
1.2 Manage Intuit QuickBooks Online
1.2.1 Identify the company information that you can and can't edit	Chapter 3, pg. 48
1.2.2 Recognize the benefits of the Close the Books feature	Chapter 5, pg. 96-98
1.2.3 Compare and contrast the cash and accrual accounting methods	Chapter 5, pg. 92-95
1.2.4 Identify the purposes of project tracking, class tracking, and locations	Chapter 3, pg. 49-62
1.2.5 Describe how to activate project tracking, class tracking, and locations	Chapter 3, pg. 49-62
1.2.6 Identify the tasks performed by automation	Chapter 5, pg. 99
1.3 Manage lists
1.3.1 Identify the lists that you can import	Chapter 2, pg. 26-27
1.3.2 Identify the content of various lists	Chapter 4, pg. 66-67
1.3.3 Identify the appropriate lists for different purposes	Chapter 4, pg. 66-67
1.3.4 Identify when and how to add, edit, delete, and merge list items	Chapter 4, pg. 78-83
1.3.5 Manage the Chart of Accounts	Chapter 4, pg. 78-83
1.4 Manage recurring transactions
1.4.1 Describe reasons for making transactions recurring	Chapter 11, pg. 229-232
1.4.2 Define types of recurrence	Chapter 11, pg. 229-232
1.4.3 Describe how to implement recurring transactions	Chapter 11, pg. 229-232
1.5 Manage journal entries

Standard	Correlating Pages
1.5.1 Identify the information required for journal entries	Chapter 5, pg. 89-92
1.5.2 Describe how to implement journal entries	Chapter 5, pg. 89-92
1.6 Connect Intuit QuickBooks Online to apps
1.6.1 Identify the purpose of apps	Chapter 5, pg. 99-100
1.6.2 Identify where to get apps	Chapter 5, pg. 99-100
1.6.3 Identify the risks and benefits of extending functionality through apps	Chapter 5, pg. 99-100
2. Sales and Money-In
2.1 Set-up customers
2.1.1 Identify the importance of the Display Name field	Chapter 6, pg. 102-111
2.1.2 Differentiate between billing and shipping addresses	Chapter 6, pg. 108-111
2.1.3 Define and describe the use of customer payment terms	Chapter 6, pg. 124-127
2.1.4 Identify taxable and non-taxable customers	Chapter 6, pg. 119-123
2.1.5 Define and describe the correct use of sub-customers	Chapter 10, pg. 212-214
2.2 Set-up products and services
2.2.1 Describe and differentiate between products and services	Chapter 6, pg. 128-137
2.2.2 Identify the information required to set up products or services	Chapter 6, pg. 128-137
2.2.3 Describe reasons for setting-up products or services	Chapter 6, pg. 128-137
2.2.4 Contrast inventory products and non-inventory products	Chapter 6, pg. 128-142
2.3 Manage sales settings
2.3.1 Customize sales forms	Chapter 7, pg. 144-145
2.3.2 Customize email message forms	Chapter 7, pg. 148-149
2.3.3 Describe the purpose of activating customer discounts	Chapter 7, pg. 148
2.3.4 Describe the Intuit QuickBooks Payments feature and how it differs from traditional payments	Chapter 7, pg. 151-153
2.4 Record basic money-in transactions
2.4.1 Describe the money-in transaction workflow	Chapter 7, pg. 144-152
2.4.2 Record and manage invoices and sales receipts	Chapter 7, pg. 144-149
2.4.3 Receive, record, and manage payments, undeposited funds, and deposits	Chapter 7, pg. 144-152
2.4.4 Record credit memos and refund receipts	Chapter 7, pg. 154-159

StandardCorrelating Pages*3. Vendors and Money-out*3.1 Manage vendor records

3.1.1 Describe how to identify existing customers as vendors

Chapter 8, pg. 170-171

3.1.2 Describe when and how to merge vendor accounts

Chapter 8, pg. 172

3.1.3 Describe how to add or change vendor payment terms

Chapter 8, pg. 164-169

3.1.4 Describe how and why to identify vendors as 1099 contractors

Chapter 8, pg. 173-177

3.2 Manage expense settings

3.2.1 Describe how and why to activate expense tracking by customer

Chapter 10, pg. 212-214

3.2.2 Describe when and how to make expenses and items billable

Chapter 10, pg. 207-210

3.2.3 Describe how to identify unbilled billable expenses

Chapter 10, pg. 211

3.3 Record and manage basic money-out transactions

3.3.1 Describe the money-out transaction workflow

Chapter 8, pg. 161-163

3.3.2 Identify types of money-out transactions

Chapter 8, pg. 161-163

3.3.3 Compare and describe the appropriate use of checks and bill payments

Chapter 9, 179-184

3.3.4 Describe the effects of recording bills, checks, and credit card transactions

Chapter 9, pg. 179-195

3.3.5 Differentiate between expense transactions and bank feed transactions

Chapter 9, pg. 187-195; Chapter 11, pg. 222-223

3.3.6 Describe how to record check, credit card, and debit card expense transactions

Chapter 9, pg. 179-195

3.3.7 Describe the use and effects of vendor credits and refunds

Chapter 10, pg. 203-206

3.3.8 Describe why and how to void, delete, and edit money-out transactions and the impact thereof

Chapter 10, pg. 197-202

4. Bank Accounts, Transaction Rules, and Receipts4.1 Implement financial account connections

4.1.1 Identify the types of financial accounts Intuit QuickBooks Online can connect to

Chapter 11, pg. 216-221

4.1.2 Describe the benefits of connecting Intuit QuickBooks Online to accounts

Chapter 11, pg. 216-221

4.2 Manage bank feeds

4.2.1 Process bank feed transactions

Chapter 11, pg. 222-227

4.2.2 Define and describe the use of bank rules

Chapter 11, pg. 224-226

Standard		Correlating Pages
4.3	Manage receipts
4.3.1	Identify methods of uploading receipts	Chapter 11, pg. 228
4.3.2	Describe how to record transactions from uploaded receipts	Chapter 11, pg. 228
5. Basic Reports and Views
5.1	Describe the content and purpose of reports
5.1.1	Describe the content and purpose of financial reports	Chapter 4, pg. 73-77
5.1.2	Describe the content and purpose of money-in reports	Chapter 12, pg. 234-239
5.1.3	Describe the content and purpose of money-out reports	Chapter 12, pg. 234, 240-245
5.2	Customize and deliver standard reports
5.2.1	Customize standard reports	Chapter 12, pg. 246-252
5.2.2	Identify report delivery formats	Chapter 12, pg. 253-255
5.3	Access other reports and views
5.3.1	Describe the content of the Audit Log	Chapter 12, pg. 255
5.3.2	Describe the content and functionality of the dashboards	Chapter 1, pg. 2-10