

Introducing Medical Terminology for Texas Proc 2024 from F.A. Davis, the most trusted Health Science publisher since 1879.

Medical Terminology: A Learning Strategies Approach (Texas Edition)

By Sara Thenuwara, Lisa Finnegan, and Liz Schaeffer

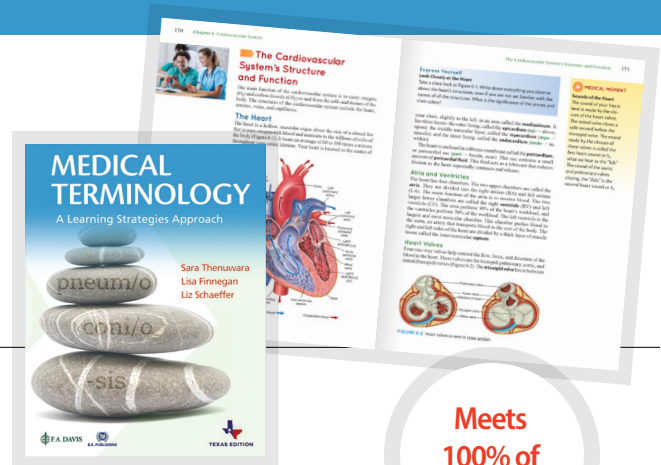

Medical Terminology: A Learning Strategies Approach (Texas Edition)

introduces students to the world of medical terminology step-by-step, from recognizing prefixes, suffixes, and root words to speaking and writing, using new words and phrases with confidence. Along the way, students learn the anatomy and physiology that medical terms represent and are empowered to leverage tools and techniques specifically designed for their own unique learning style.

Textbook Features:

Learning a new language can be challenging—Medical Terminology: A Learning Strategies Approach provides the tools to set students up for learning success.

- Helpful learning tips and strategies for different learning styles echoed throughout the text
- Clear structure and highly visually format help demystify the process of learning medical terminology
- Chapters explore each body system and their related medical terminology, pathologies, procedures, pharmacology, and abbreviations
- Color-coded word parts emphasize how terms are built through prefixes, suffixes, and combining forms
- Students explore case studies demonstrating how terminology is used in the real world of medicine
- Chapter features challenge students to translate examination notes and laboratory reports, build new terms, and more
- Students explore real-world careers in the fields of Health, Medicine, and beyond
- Over 2,300 review questions focusing on word building, word deciphering, term identification, and more

Meets
100% of
TEKS

Instructor/Student Resources to Support Learning:

- Stunning Image Bank
- Flashcards
- Audio Resources
- Chapter PowerPoint Presentations
- Guided Practice Activities and Handouts
- Test Bank and Answer Keys
- Lesson Plans and Pacing Guidelines

Component:

Medical Terminology: A Learning Strategies Approach (Texas Edition) - Textbook

Formats: Print and eTextbook

More details, pricing, and samples at bepublishing.com/proc2024

To bring quality Health Science education resources into high school classrooms, B.E. Publishing has partnered with F.A. Davis Company, which has been publishing titles to meet the needs of Health Science educators since 1879.

✉ sales@bepublishing.com ☎ 888.781.6921 📠 401.781.7608